WHO ARE WE?

Glory Outreach Assembly (GOA) is a Christian faith based Church organization, founded in Kenya in 1991 by Bishop David Munyi Thagana. GOA seeks to realize fully mature disciples of Jesus who compassionately pursue the Great Commission demonstrating Godly zeal and transformational leadership to bring positive change Globally. For the past 33 Years GOA teams have pursued the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-10) through creative strategies. These include, church planting, caring for the orphans and the vulnerable, training leaders to accelerate the spread of the Gospel, building peace and mentoring future generation of Godly leaders. GOA Teams are spread across Six African Countries, Kenya, Uganda, Burundi, DR Congo, Tanzania and Rwanda. GOA has also been established in the United States and Switzerland with strategic partnerships that enable the ministry to impact the lives of the communities in Africa.

COMPASSION & DIGNITY

GOA Compassion Teams rescue vulnerable and destitute children and place them in our 7 charitable children homes and Vibrant Foster families. We raise the children in their new families and provide all their basic needs as well as secondary needs. Today GOA Homes and a families care for 354 children. For us to effectively care for the children strive to raise sponsorship for each each child to effectively provide for their needs. It takes 3 sponsorships, USD 39 each, to provide for their food, shelter, education and medical care. We are currently in need of 327 sponsorships to care for all our children
